

I James Smithson son to Hugh first Duke of Northumberland, & Elizabeth, heiress of the Hunguiford of Studley, & mine to Charles second Duke of Somerset, now residing in Whitehall Street Cavendish Square, do the twenty third day of October one thousand eight hundred & twenty six, make the last will & testament.

I bequeath the whole of my property every nature & kind so ever to my beloved nephew Drummond of Chavigny Esq. to be disposed of in the following manner; and I devise of my said. estate putting my property under the management of the Court of Chancery.

To John Fittall, formerly by my servant, but now employed in the London Dock, and residing at Holy Jubilee Place North Mile End old town, in consideration of his attachment & fidelity to me, & the long service he has taken of my effects I give & bequeath the annuity on a term of one hundred pounds the first year to be paid to him quarterly of legacy duty & all other the first payment to be made at the expiration of three months

Finders' Guide to PRINTS and DRAWINGS in the SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

