

Simple, pinnate, pinnules simple, elegantly incurved; axis of the stem nearly triangular, of pinnules setaceous.

Coast of Martinique. Lamarck. Lamouroux.

Antipathes eupteridea, Lamarck, ii. 483, No. 19.

une belle plume de paon décolorée et brunnâtre."

—, Lamour. Encycl. 71; "Resemble à

III. In plano ramosæ.

1. Ramis pinnatis.

5. ANTIPATHES PECTINATA. (Lamarck.)

A. flabellata, 9" alta; ramis pinnato-pectinatis; ramorum axe compresso, ramulorum filiformi, subulato; spinulis paucis.

Flabellate, 9 inches high; branches pinnato-pectinate, axis of the branches compressed; of the branchlets filiform, subulate; spinules few.

Antipathes pectinata, Lamk. ii. 480, No. 6.—Locality not given. —, Lamour. Pol. flex. 381; Encyc. 72.

6. ANTIPATHES MYRIOPHYLLA. (Pallas.)

A. grandis (18–20" alta), latè ramosissima, incurvata, in plano paniculata, subtripinnata, pinnulis brevibus (vix $\frac{3}{4}$ "), crebris; pinnularum axe setaceo, scabro.

Large (18 to 20 inches high), much and spreading ramose, incurvate, paniculate in a plane, subtripinnate, pinnules short ($\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch or less), much crowded; axis of the pinnules setaceous, scabrous.

Indian Ocean. Ellis. Lamouroux.

Myriophyllum Indicum ramosissimum, Pettiv. Gazoph. tab. 35, fig. 12.

Antipathes myriophylla, Esper, Fortsetz. i. tab. 10.

Antipathes myriophylla, Pallas, Zooph. 210.

—, Lamk. ii. 481, No. 9.

—, Lamour. Pol. flex. 378; Exp. 32, pl. 19, figs. 11, 12; Encyc. 71.

—, Ellis and Sol. 102, tab. 19, figs. 11, 12.—From the Moluccas.

—, Blainv. Man. 510, pl. 87, fig. 2.